

Progression ladder History

UKS2	I can analyse a range of sources for bias
	I can make connections and contrasts between different time periods studied and talk about trends over time.
	I know of historical events important to my local area
	I can describe more than one ancient civilisation
	I have a thorough understanding of World history until the present day.
	I can order dates even when crossing between BC and AD.
	I can confidently use and understand the terms BC/BCE and CE/AD
LKS2	I can use both primary and secondary sources.
	I can confidently understand British History up to 1066
	I can order key events within history either before or after Christ but not crossing.
	I can place events, artefacts and historical figures on a timeline using dates.
	I can use the term BC / AD
KS1	I can show some understanding of how people find out about the past
	I can find historical information using photographs, videos and stories.
	I can name some key historical figures.
	I know of historical people important to my local area.
	I can talk about how things have changed since my parents or grandparents were children.
	I can tell others about changes that have happened in my own life since I was born.
	I can put up to three objects from recent history in chronological order.
EYFS	I can develop an understanding of growth, decay and changes over time.
	I can comment and ask questions about aspects of my familiar world such as the place where I live or the natural world.
	I can question why things happen.
	I can remember and talk about significant events in my own experience.
	I can retell a simple past event in correct order